IWLCA Names 2008 Under Armour North-South Senior All Star Game Rosters 112 student-athletes honored for outstanding careers

3 June 2008

The IWLCA has announced the rosters of the teams competing in the annual IWLCA/Under Armour North-South Senior All Star Games. These games are a part of the IWLCA Champions' Cup, which will be held June 14 at the United Sports Training Center in Downingtown, Pa. These 112 women were nominated by their coaches based on their availability for the game and were then selected by virtue of their playing career.

In Division III, 15 All-Americans are included in the 41 women who have been invited to participate. First team honorees Christine Cavallo, Toni-Anne Cavallo, and Karen Doane from NCAA semifinalist TCNJ are on the North squad, as are 2007 National Goalie of the Year Michelle Smith and 2008 third-team All-American CJ Yanofsky from Trinity. Joining them are second-team honorees Bobbi Dennison (Bowdoin), Anita Martignetti (Babson), and Linda McEvoy (Amherst), as well as third-team All-Americans Courtney Dean (Brockport) and Maddy Hoeg (Amherst). On the South squad are first-team honorees Katie Ceglarski and Callie Gates from Gettysburg and Sue Ackermann from Salisbury. Teammates Kelly Phillips (Salisbury) and Krissy Browning (Gettysburg) were second-team honorees, as was Caitlin Erickson (Mary Washington). Megan Wallenhorst (Lycoming) was honored in 2008 as a third-team All-American. 2007 National Champion Carli McLaughlin (Franklin & Marshall) will also be a member of the South squad. Brett Allen (Bates) and Kara Reber (Lycoming) will coach the North and South teams, respectively.

Teammates Mallory Poole and Lauren Scipione from C. W. Post are a pair of 2008 All-Americans who will play for the North team in the Division II matchup; they will face first-team All-Americans Marissa Pesce (Limestone) and Stephanie Kienle (West Chester), who will play for the South. Kienle set the all-time Division II scoring record as she helped the Golden Rams to the national championship. Head coaches Meghan McNamara (C. W. Post) and Ginny Martino (West Chester), who faced each other in the Division II NCAA title game, will lead the North and South teams in this game.

Forty-three Division I student-athletes will comprise the two teams in the Division I matchup, headlined by 12 2008 All-Americans, including Tewaaron finalists Dana Dobbie and Kelly Kasper from Maryland, who will play for the South team. These two first-team All-Americans will be joined by ACC rival and fellow first-team honoree Claire Bordley from Virginia as well as fellow Terp Lauren Cohen, a second-team honoree. Margie Curran from Vanderbilt, a second-team All-American, will also play for the south as will third-team honoree Laura King from George Mason. Notre Dame's Caitlin McKinney is the North team's lone first-team All-American, but she is joined on the field by second-team recipient Lauren Taylor from Yale and a trio of third-team honorees in Courtney Farrell (Cornell), Melissa Lehman (Penn), and Hillary Richards (Temple). Lauren Morton (Boston University), a second-team All-American, was also selected to the North squad. The North team will be coached by Syracuse head coach Gary Gait and his assistant, John Battaglino, while the South team will be led by George Mason head coach Amy Bokker and her assistant, Liz Schaffner.
